

Fully Automated Network Cabinet Manufacturer

A yellow Pelican hard-shell case is open, revealing its interior compartments. The main compartment contains a red and white 'ES-4000R TEST' device with a black grid of test points. To its right is a black power cord with a red handle and a blue box. Below the power cord is a white bottle with a blue label and a green-handled tool. To the left of the 'ES-4000R TEST' device is a blue box and a clear plastic bag. The case is lined with black foam and has a yellow latch on the left side.
